WOW! If you love old school Nintendo rpg games like Dragon Warrior then this game is going to blow your ♥♥♥♥ing mind! From the crude humor to the shocking battle scenes (totally threw me for a loop) this game is old school on steroids! I highly recommend giving this game a full play through! Nothing is more badass than Metal as ♥♥♥♥!. Good simple party game, best used in combination with beer, 55' flat screen and 4 controllers!. I love this game, have only played "house" so far and am doing a few let's play episodes on this game (will be up in the next few days). I love how most things are very logical like finding the gun in the house. i found bullets then had a think about where someone might keep their gun and sure enough it was there, same with the gasoline. so far great but havent finished house yet and havent even started blackwater.

ONE MINOR ANNOYANCE, and i promise it is quite minor. at the tunnel section i ran myself over exiting the vehicle going at a snails pace. was kinda annoying since there is no save mechanic. that is all. ive got three episodes recorded and will finish House soon.

If anyone is reading this wondering whether to buy. trust me its got consistant mechanics, hours of fun, logical (sometimes illogical) puzzles and a whole bunch of scares. <3. A great game with interesting mechanics and characters. Awesome music, and chizuru is best girl (yuuto is really good too)

Also the pause screen has cook art. Having played a few visual novels in my time I can recommend this to anyone trying to get into the visual novel scene.

This is a perfect "starter" for anyone that isnt sure what a visual novel is. For those a bit more experienced its still a pretty entertaining and easy to read book infact thats what makes it good, its easy, to read.

Its story is easy to follow, the visual style also keeps it fresh and every mini plot within each episode keeps every episode interesting so you never get bored.

Id say its a nice little ride from beginning to end, enjoy it, its worth the price and the buy.

Only downside is its got no voice acting and the music is a hit/miss thing depending on your tastes. Its sound quality can also be a little blasting even when you've got the volume low.

Still, its a good ride no catch required.

Id recommend it to anyone, honestly.. Very repetitive. The puzzle game isn't very fun, and there is little to no story.. I've played this one and Exoddus on the PS. It is one of the best designed games in every aspect and is on my top 10 list of game experiences of all time. I still love it and had to download it on steam to live through that amazing experience again. Don't miss out on this one.. I accidentally left it open when I slept. Can't refund it anymore.

0/12.7 Dont buy that game, open it up to get trading cards and sleep.

Now i know why this has 16%.

IT IS HORRIBLE!

The great shooting mechanic and the great graphic is all that stayed from Wildlands. This piece of shit does everything wrong. The old cars are slower, so the new ones seem faster. The Nitro damages the cars and the narrow bolivian streets make it impossible to go fast. Drifting doesnt work. The minibusses in the side missions just drive left from time to time. Not me and my brother both witnessed it. It's like someone grabs the wheel. Flying became more horrible. The savespawns are even worse than in Wildlands. The Characters range from annoying religios fanatic to annoying rapping fanatic. the "plot" is an insult to your inteligents.

Like my brother said:" The only character you could feel yourself into, is this motorcicle fanatic. Cause he killed himself."

*edit*

"Playable."

Tried to play the tutorial and it was broken. Told me I had to deliver a yellow good from a specific city to a city, but no yellow good was there present, couldn't pass. (*edit* I may have been playing wrong, the tutorial was not helping me learn.)

Can't add bots to two player multiplayer game, only three player maps available.

When needlessly require a email to play online. Check box for email me more was UNCHECKABLE. (*edit*, a friend didn't have the same experience, this may have been fixed)

They sure as remembered to pack in the DLC maps. Pay money to play our ported mobile app game. (DLC is still t, no matter how ubiquitous it becomes)

It's sad, this is a quality board game.. Tower defense game with enjoyable humour, but frequent crashes ruin the fun.. Sucks!

I played this game for 7 minutes. I tried being the bugs, I tried being the humans.

That was as much gameplay as I can see myself getting out of this game. 5 bucks on sale for 7 minutes?

Not worth it if you ask me.

You play as a human or a bug/spider/rodant and they just run around and try to smack you 3 times and you try to run away or vise versa. It isn't all that entertaining. It plays out like a really bad version of that Counter Strike Hide n Seek mod that lets you disguise yourself as any item in the map. It feel like that but way worse and in cramped quarters. you are in this really small house with nowhere to hide basically so the humans are at a pretty big advantage over you. It's just not that great. It's bland and lacking. For 5 bucks buy payday 2 instead.

Rating: 2/10

It's bug free aside from the insects that you play as. I didn't find it fun. There is nothing to it really.. Clunky mechanics... Very hard to do anything at times. If you try to complete higher levels, the AI pretty much cheats in my opinion, basically becoming impossible to beat. God forbid you get a decent item in order to help in higher level boards early on. It is a very mediocre tactics game in need of better items. Why developers believe extreme difficulty and linear forced paths equal FUN is beyond my understanding. I regret purchasing the game, sorry. Its just not enjoyable. Tedious movement and attacks using clunky UI mechanics? Yes, plenty of that.. I went into this expecting another run of the mill MOBA and, while that wasn't far off, there was a bit of a twist on the genre. Bloodsports.TV is a multiplayer online battle arena game from Fatshark and Toadman Interactive. Let's get rocking.

The Good

By now you've all played either League of Legends, or DOTA, or Smite, etc. Or, you live under a rock. My first experience in the MOBA world was Guardians of Middle-Earth and I anticipated every other MOBA I played after that would be, essentially, very similar. While B.TV is similar to your run of the mill MOBA, the object of the game is different and a lot less stressful. Rather than fighting the enemy team, you're working with your team to defend your base against waves of enemies. It's a blast.

I love the artwork in this game. I've been a fan of it ever since i first played Krater, another great addition to the gaming world from Fatshark. It's like a less serious, Fallout style post-apocalyptic wasteland full of Scandinavians. What's not to love? And the character designs are just fantastic.

The music is great, the controls are simple, the items are creative and fun, and the horde-style gameplay will keep you coming back for more.

The Bad

There wasn't really anything that turned me off to the game while I was playing. We can just move along.

The Meh

Because it's not one of the bigger name MOBAs, the community is pretty small and all but dead as far as I can tell. Don't let that deter you though if you're really wanting to play. It's a fun game nonetheless.

Also, you have to pay to get the game itself, unlike other MOBAs.

Verdict: Yea

Bloodsports.TV is a solid MOBA game and, if you're a fan of Krater, you're going to like it. If it goes on sale, don't hesitate to pick it up and give it a try. As always, thanks for reading.. So far so good. The basics are there. It needs some work, like adjustable difficulty, minimap, moving the camera to the selected zombie when you click on their icon. Too bad the Capcha on their forums account creation isn't working.. Fun game, has nice puzzles and nice graphics as well. The story is not half bad, all in all a nice game to play!

Recommended!
